TSB80512AP | Targus Geo 15.6" Backpack

A striking balance between minimalistic design and practicality, the Geo Backpack offers a slim aesthetic to the traditional backpack. The toggle hood has a separate hood pocket for small accessories in addition to two front zippered pockets, while the laptop compartment is lined with padded protection. There's ample space to carry the essentials and more. Designed with engineered strips and cross-dyed – each element has been carefully designed so you can carry your technology and have plenty of spare storage.

The Geo collection is designed to match a lifestyle of carrying the technology that goes with you everywhere. Combining a fresh look and neutral color tones with inspiring design, the collection is perfect for the weekend explorer and daily office commuter.
